

Georgia Historical Society Online Learning User Guide

courses.georgiahistory.com

Home Page

The screenshot shows the home page of the Georgia Historical Society Online Learning portal. At the top left, there is a "HOME" link. Below it is a large banner with the Georgia Historical Society logo and the text "ONLINE LEARNING" next to an image of a wooden drum. The main content area is titled "Georgia Historical Society Online Courses" and contains a welcome message, a "LOG IN" section with fields for "Username" and "Password", a "Remember Me" checkbox, a "Log In" button, and links for "Register" and "Lost Password". Below the login section is a "HOW TO USE THIS SITE" section with a link to "Click here to download detailed instructions on how to use this site." On the left side, there is a green box with a lightbulb icon and the text "Introduction to Primary Sources in the Classroom" and "Free, self-paced online modules with an emphasis on... primary sources to incorporate into the curriculum." Blue arrows point from callout boxes to the "LOG IN" section, the "Register" link, and the "Introduction to Primary Sources in the Classroom" box.

Use your unique username and password to login.

You will use one username and password for the GHS Online Learning website.

Click on "Register" to make a username and password if you do not already have one.

Select your course from the list.

Course Navigation

Module 1		Introduction to the Georgia Historical Society
This module will act as an introduction to the Georgia Historical Society. The module will give an overview of the organization and the many resources available for educators with an emphasis on access to primary sources.
Unit 1	Overview	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Unit 2	Welcome to the Research Center	<input type="checkbox"/>
Unit 3	The Life of a GHS Collection	<input type="checkbox"/>
Unit 4	GHS Educational Resources	<input type="checkbox"/>

Courses are composed of modules. Each module is made up of units. The units contain text, videos, tasks, and sometimes quizzes. Simply click on the hyperlinked unit name to go to the individual unit page.

Once you complete a unit, a green check mark will appear next to the unit name.

Units

Have you completed this unit? Then mark this unit as completed.

Each unit is different. You may be asked to watch a video, read some text, or explore a linked website. Make sure you click “Mark as Completed” at the end of each unit.

Question #3 - Teaching Georgia's history is a key part of GHS's mission.

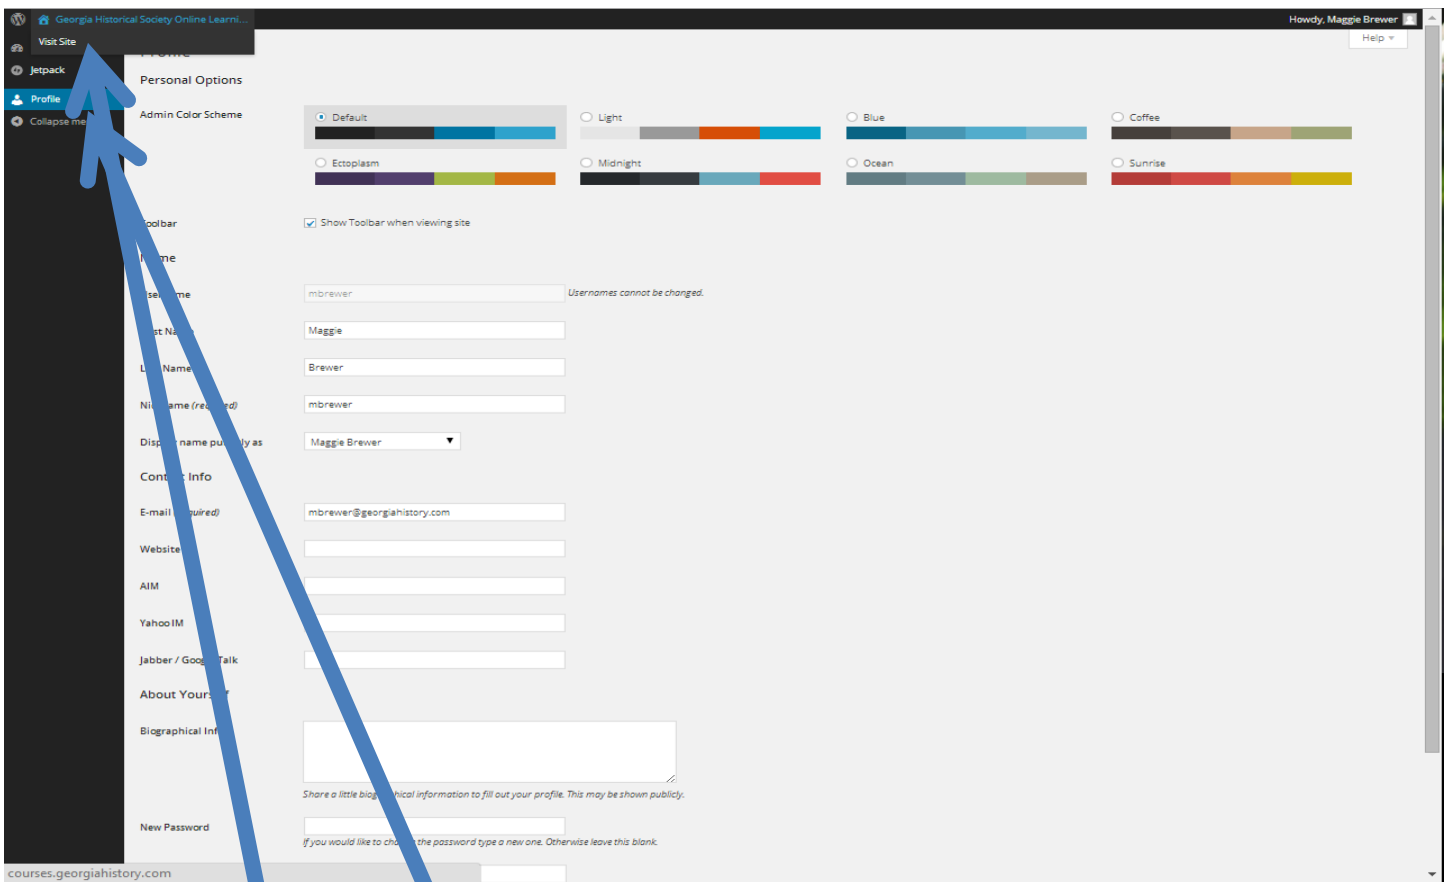

- True
- False

Some units will end in a quiz. Clicks submit to submit your answers. This will automatically mark the unit as complete.

User Dashboard

All registered users in any will have access to a user dashboard.

From the user dashboard, you can access your profile. From the profile screen, you can choose a color scheme, change your password, and update your contact information.

To get back to the main page, hover over Georgia Historical Society Online Learning and click Visit Site.